Endis Stubborn Coughs in a Herry

Far real effectiveness, the old hems-made requely has no equal. Easily and cheeply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a had court can be conquered, until you try this famous eld home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate ratef given is almoste like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a punt bottle, put 2% onness of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar Syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use charfied modasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon yer will notice the phlega thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up on ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for broughtis, croup, hearscness, and bronchial asthma.

BREED THEATRE

BREED THEATRE

Dorothy Phillips in her latest production "Paid in Advance" will be the feature attraction at the Breed theatre today. "Paid in Advance" is based on a story of the Canadian Northwest and the Klondike, by James Oliver Curwood, who is recognized throughout this country and Canada as one of the foremest students of life in that region, as well as a creator of entrancing stories. "Paid in Advance" is rich in situations and soenes. The story begins in the fur country of Canada and enough of the story is laid there to give an excellent knowledge of the manners and customs of the heterogeneous people who inhabited the region. Then the accenes shift to Klondike, and portray in all its wickedness and taudry allurements the gold-mining district at Dawsen City. Miss Phillips is cast as Joan Gray, daughter of a fur irapper in northern Canada. She is lured to Dawson City by the unserupulous proprietor of a notorious dive, who promises her work as a nurse and assures her that her father will become wealthy as an expert fur buyer.

great-hearted west of 1880. Its wonderful story, great cast, and the lavich scale on which it was produced lift it far above the ordinary western photoplay. It is a remarkably well presented all-American picture that evcery red-blooded American will enjoy.

The Virtuous Model, featuring Dolores, is a picture that appeals to the eye and to the mind. Albert Capellani, when he selected Pierre Wolff's famous play. The Gutter, recognized its adaptability to the screen and has made of it a strong drama with sevcrai good punches in it. The stage settings and interiors are very well chosen, and the picture, as a whole, is the type that appeals to the massas, it is a story of Paris—of its notorious cabarets and beautiful art studios.
